

SAINT MARK CATHOLIC ACADEMY

A Guiding Light in Sheepshead Bay

May 31, 2023

Dear Families:

As I write this letter, we are preparing for tonight's Spring Show. Looking through tonight's "playlist," I'm certain that there are going to be plenty of songs that will have the audience dancing in their seats! Our students and teachers have been working hard these past few months under the guidance and support of our music teacher Mr. Quinn. They've been ready for "showtime" for quite a while now, and they're eager to show off their moves!

If the Christmas Show is a celebration of the holiday season, then the Spring Show is indeed a celebration of the culmination of the academic year. Just take a look at the song list...

- "Coming to America" – Look at our student population. Just as we have done for nearly a century, Saint Mark continues to serve immigrant students; our school welcomes families from overseas who seek and new and better life for their children.
- "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" – It's a song about commitment. We see that every day at SMCA. Indeed, there is no mountain high enough that will keep our teachers from supporting and caring for our students!
- "I Heard It Through the Grapevine" – For many of you, this may be your first year with us. You may have come to Saint Mark because of what you "heard through the grapevine." Our parents and our families are our biggest cheerleaders and supporters. Please continue to tell family and friends about all the great things going on at Saint Mark Catholic Academy, so they can hear it through the grapevine, too!
- "Stand By Me" – This is another song of dedication and support. As it has been said so many times before, Christ is the reason for our school, and Jesus stands besides every member of our school community each day, acting as a source of guidance and love.

The eighth grade's grand finale is all about love and harmony as they perform a routine to the song "Love Train." What a great song to end—not only the show—but the entire school year. Without question, Saint Mark Catholic Academy is a family, and families love each other. We thank you for your love, guidance, and support this year! It's been quite a ride!

Sincerely,

Mr. Mark Wilson
Principal
